OVERCOMING CHALLENGES IN VOLUNTEER-LED ORGANISATIONS

In the recent interview, Firefly's Courtney Smith and Darryl Vine dive into the challenges and solutions in community volunteering, compliance, and safeguarding. Featuring Adam Wood, CEO of Safeguarding You, this engaging discussion explores how technology, shared responsibilities, and storytelling can empower organisations to thrive while keeping their communities safe.

RETAIN WITH MEANING

Volunteer retention is more than a strategy—it’s about building a supportive, inspiring community. Volunteers who feel valued, challenged, and recognised for their contributions are not only more likely to stay but also become powerful advocates for your mission. As Maya Angelou famously said, “People will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel.” Making volunteers feel valued is the key to lasting engagement and meaningful impact.

REACH OUT STRATEGICALLY

In today's fast-paced world, strategic outreach is a keystone to unlocking sustainable, impactful fundraising. It's not just about asking for donations or financial backing—effective fundraising is about building mutually beneficial relationships that amplify your mission, resonate with the right audiences, and create lasting partnerships.

REINFORCE LEADERSHIP

Leadership in the nonprofit sector isn't just about directing an organisation's vision—it's about rallying communities, creating meaningful connections, and inspiring volunteers to contribute wholeheartedly. For nonprofits, reinforced leadership plays a critical role in achieving goals, nurturing growth, and navigating the unique challenges that arise in a volunteer-driven setting.
